Harassment and cyberbullying policy

The safety of our creators, viewers, and partners is our highest priority – and we look to each of you to help us protect this unique and vibrant community. It's important you understand our Community Guidelines, and the role they play in our shared responsibility to keep YouTube safe. Please take the time to carefully read the policy below. You can also check out this page for a full list of our guidelines.

We recently announced some updates on our harassment policy to better protect creators and users. The policy below has been updated to reflect these changes.

Content that threatens individuals is not allowed on YouTube. We also do not allow content that targets an individual with prolonged or malicious insults based on intrinsic attributes, including their protected group status or physical traits.

Help Center article.

If specific threats are made against you and you feel unsafe, report it directly to your local law enforcement agency.

What this means for you

If you're posting content

Don't post content on YouTube if it fits any of the descriptions noted below.

- Content that features prolonged name calling or malicious insults (such as racial slurs) based on their intrinsic attributes. These attributes include their protected group status, physical attributes, or their status as a survivor of sexual assault, domestic abuse, child abuse etc.
- Content uploaded with the intent to shame, deceive or insult a minor. A minor is defined as a person under the legal age of majority. This usually means anyone younger than 18 years old, but the age of a minor might vary by country.

Other types of content that violate this policy

Exceptions

We may allow content that includes harassment if the primary purpose is educational, documentary, scientific, or artistic in nature. This is not a free pass to harass someone. Some examples include:

- Debates related to high-profile officials or leaders: Content featuring debates or discussions of topical issues concerning people who have positions of power, like high-profile government officials or CEOs of major multinational corporations.
- Scripted performances: Insults made in the context of an artistic medium such as scripted satire, stand up comedy, or music (e.g. a diss track). Note: This is not a free pass to harass someone and claim "I was joking."
- Harassment education or awareness: Content that features actual or simulated harassment for documentary purposes or with willing participants (e.g. actors) to combat cyberbullying or raise awareness.

Note: We take a harder line on content that maliciously insults someone based on their protected group status, regardless of whether or not they are a high-profile person.

Repeatedly encourages abusive audience behavior.

Repeatedly targets, insults and abuses an identifiable individual based on their intrinsic attributes across multiple uploads.

- Exposes an individual to risks of physical harm based on the local social or political context.
- Creates content that harms the YouTube ecosystem by persistently inciting hostility between creators for personal financial gain.

Examples

Here are some examples of content that's not allowed on YouTube:

- Repeatedly showing pictures of someone and then making statements like "Look at this creature's teeth, they're so disgusting!", with similar commentary targeting intrinsic attributes throughout the video.
- Targeting an individual based on their membership in a protected group, such as by saying: "Look at this filthy [slur targeting a protected group], I wish they'd just get hit by a truck."
- Targeting an individual and making claims they are involved in human trafficking in the context of a harmful conspiracy theory where the conspiracy is linked to direct threats or violent acts.
- Using an extreme insult to dehumanize an individual based on their intrinsic attributes. For example: "Look at this dog of a woman! She's not even a human being — she must be some sort of mutant or animal!"
- Depicting an identifiable individual being murdered, seriously injured, or engaged in a graphic sexual act without their consent.
- Accounts dedicated entirely to focusing on maliciously insulting an identifiable individual.

What happens if content violates this policy

If your content violates this policy, we'll remove the content and send you an email to let you know. If this is your first time violating our Community Guidelines, you'll get a warning with no penalty to your channel. If it's not, we'll issue a strike against your channel. If you get 3 strikes, your channel will be terminated. You can learn more about our strikes system here.

We may also terminate your channel or account for repeated violations of the Community Guidelines or Terms of Service, as well as due to a single case of severe abuse, or when the channel is dedicated to a policy violation. You can learn more about channel or account terminations here.
